Accu Limited's Health & Safety Policy Statement

Revision C (21st September 2021)

It is the responsibility of Accu Limited and its employees to ensure a safe working practice and to comply to the directives regarding the Health and Safety at Work, Etc. Act 1974 to ensure the health, safety and well-being of both employees and visitors.

Directors and staff are committed to ensuring that health and safety remains a high priority by the continuous development of its safety culture. This policy Implementation is the responsibility of the company directors, who will oversee strategy and the day-to-day management of health and safety within the company.

Accu Limited has a Health and Safety Officer to assist and advise employees in the management of health, safety and welfare. Compliance with the Health and Safety Policy and procedures is classed as a minimum requirement and all staff have a responsibility to strive for continuous improvement.

We pride ourselves on the smooth operation and clear staff communication throughout our company, and we ensure that adequate procedures are set in place e.g. safety walks, employee feedback, risk assessments, and the distribution of our company handbook, to help communication and to air any grievances or issues in the workplace and to keep all employees up-to-date on health and safety developments within the company.

All employees and visitors are expected to assist us in carrying out the responsibilities outlined in this policy, and must ensure that work is carried out without risk to themselves or others.

This policy will be regularly monitored, reviewed and updated at least once every 12 months to reflect any changes in legislation or to report any changes in our activities or procedures – any updates will also be brought to the attention of our employees.
